

Josh Jilot

joshjilot@gmail.com (503) 784-8125

460 East 14th Ave - Apt 10
Eugene, OR 97401

Education

Bachelors of Science – Computer Science (Psychology & Ethics minors)

GPA: 3.88

- University of Oregon – Eugene, OR USA

September 2021 – Current

Work Experience

- University of Oregon Bookstore – Sales Associate

July 2023 – Present

- Fast-moving position in dynamic retail work environment.
- Employees must meet needs of many different customers while dividing up and balancing daily tasks among a team of workers.
- During high-density hours of gameday and holidays employees must navigate greatly increased workload while greater number of distractions and customer interactions surround them.
- Required solid teamwork and management of multiple tasks.

- Eb & Bean – Customer Assistant/Food Preparation

June 2022 – September 2022

- High-intensity summer ice cream service job involved handling money/working a register, cooking, cleaning, and keeping long lines of customers as happy as possible.
- Fast-paced work environment required quick acquisition of new skills and roles within a team-oriented workspace.
- Food related tasks involved preparing toppings and bases from scratch along with nicely presenting and serving food to customers as requested.

- Student Mentor

September 2022 – June 2023

- Volunteer position focused on working with students struggling to grasp basics of computer science.
- Involved interacting with and helping students under great stress in a manner that enabled them to become more comfortable and confident in their work.
- Required patience, instructional ability, and communication skills.

Abilities

- Patient with and passionate about helping others.
- Works well in a team/good interpersonal skills.
- Quickly acquires new skills with high retention.
- Experience with cash registers and POS systems
- Equally organized and diligent with smaller or more important tasks